Buying Items

If you need to order supplies for your job, you must get approval from your manager before you spend any funds. You will usually order supplies with use of your manager's Soldo card. You will need to provide an invoice or receipt for these purchases.

We can only reimburse other expense claims if you have been authorised to spend the funds and you provide a receipt. All expenses should be claimed within 30 days of spending the funds.