Disability Related Sickness

We are committed to supporting people who have a long-term condition or disability. If you have a disability you are encouraged to be open with your manager so that the appropriate support and adjustments can be put into place.